

Our Mission

The Mission of Art4Life is to provide diverse opportunities for developing a deeper understanding of the Arts, our city, and other cultures, for it is through these understandings that we connect ourselves to our past, present, and future.

To provide a diverse arts education program open to children and/or adults in a neighborhood or school setting. To teach creative thinking, problem solving, teamwork and mutual respect through the Arts. To provide a safe & nurturing space for creative endeavors & experimentation. To enhance appreciation and exposure to the Arts through art projects and artistic experiences.

2011 SUMMER CAMP!

Winterhaven Elementary

7:30 a.m. - 5:30 p.m.

Kindergarten (must be 6 yrs old) through 5th Grade

Week One: June 27 - July 1

PORTLAND LINES: During this week we will explore drawing and use architecture as inspiration. We will work with line and mark techniques such as gesture, contour, and perspective. We will end with the creation of a large scale cityscape drawing. Field Trip: we will visit an Architecture firm & do a walking tour of our city's architecture

Week Two: July 5 - July 8 (closed July 4th)

MUSIC FESTIVAL: We are going to look at several different types of music and highlight a different genre everyday. We will make a music video using our own songs and recordings from Garage Band. We will also discuss how music is used to convey emotions and how different music can make us feel. Field Trip: Chamber Music NorthWest

Week Three: July 11 - July 15

PAINTING WEEK: While working mostly outdoors the kids will get to paint using a variety of techniques, and there is the possibility of a mural to be created over the course of the week. An old t-shirt that can double as a smock is a MUST! Field Trip: Portland Art Museum & Local Galleries

Week Four: July 18 - July 22

CULTURE WEEK: What makes a culture? We are going to explore what constitutes culture while creating our own fictitious one! We will create holidays, our history, government, traditions, customs, language and more! The week will end with a traditional celebration of one of our most revered holidays. Field Trip: We are going to go on a field trip to Habibi Restaurant.

Week Five: July 25 - July 29

CIRQUE DU ART!: Through out the week the kids will learn to perform different tricks. For example - hula hooping, juggling, clowning, magic tricks, and Cirque Du Soleil inspired acrobatics. We will also create costumes, props, sets and flyers for the Carnival we will be hosting on Friday. Field Trip: We will be going to the Splendorporium to watch and learn from an aerialist. We will also have The Mayor of Hooperville teach us some hula hooping moves.

Week Six: August 1 - August 5

GRAPHIC DESIGN WEEK: Communicating specific ideas through art. The kids will learn how to make their own typography and use this skill to design cereal boxes, posters and even to make a commercial! Field Trip: We will be going to Nemo Designs for a photo-shoot and poster creation!

Week Seven: August 8 - August 12

SCULPTURE WEEK: Prepare to build, form, twist, turn, stack, and get messy during sculpture week. In between swimming and snack-time, the kids will make plaster forms, build wire figures, and go on frequent found object hunts. Field Trip: Tour of Portland's outdoor sculptures

Week Eight: August 15 - August 19

FILM WEEK: During this week the kids will write a story using a storyboard as a group and then create a movie masterpiece. They will be in charge of every aspect of its creation, the set, costumes, acting and special effects. Field Trip: We will show the film at the Hollywood Theater Premiere. Friday at 1pm
